

Minsk Dialogue
Virtual Forum:
The Belarus Crisis:
Mapping the uncertainty in regional security
November 25 - 27, 2020

Speakers' biographies

Yauheni Preiherman is the Founder and Director of the Minsk Dialogue Council on International Relations. His main research interests include the foreign policies of small states, international affairs in Eastern Europe, and Euro-Atlantic and Eurasian security. Yauheni is a regular contributor to the Eurasia Daily Monitor by the Jamestown Foundation (USA), Valdai Discussion Club (Russia), Global Brief (Canada), the European Council on Foreign Relations, and other Belarusian and international publications. His articles and comments have appeared in Foreign Policy, Carnegie's Strategic Europe, Kommersant, Vedomosti, The Washington Post, The Wall Street Journal, Guardian, Huffington Post, The Moscow Times, and other publications. Yauheni is a member of several professional and alumni networks, including the Younger Generation Leaders Network on Euro-Atlantic Security (YGLN), Collective Security Initiative, Chevening alumni network, and the British International Studies Association (BISA). He is also a Board member at the Discussion and Analytical Society Liberal Club (Belarus), an Advisory Board member at the International Institute for Peace (Austria), and an Expert Council member at the Cyber Industry Association (Belarus). Yauheni holds a BA in International Relations from the Belarusian State University, an MA in European Politics from Sussex University (UK), and is currently pursuing a PhD in Politics and International Studies at Warwick University (UK). His PhD thesis deals with foreign policy strategies of small states which are stuck amid geostrategic asymmetries.

The Future of Belarus's Multi-Vector Foreign Policy, Yauheni Preiherman - Minsk Dialogue Council on International Relations, November 9, 2020

Don't Put Belarus in the Middle: The West Needs to Balance the Interests of Moscow and Minsk,

Yauheni Preiherman, Thomas Graham - Foreign Affairs, October 2, 2020

Dzianis Melyantsou is the coordinator of the Belarus's Foreign Policy Programme of the Minsk Dialogue Council on International Relations. A graduate of the History Department at Mahilou State University, he then studied at the Institute for International Relations and Political Sciences in Vilnius (Lithuania), where he defended his MA thesis in 2006 (International Relations and Diplomacy). He also holds an MA in International Relations from the Belarusian State University (Minsk). In 2007-2017 Dzianis worked as a senior analyst at the Belarusian Institute for Strategic Studies (BISS). Concurrently, in 2006-2009 he lectured at the European Humanities University in Vilnius. He specializes in Belarus's foreign policy, Belarus-EU and Belarus-US relations, international and European security.

Political Crisis in Belarus: Reasons and perspectives, Dzianis Melyantsou - Institute for Security Policy, September 24, 2020

Siarhei Bohdan works at the Friedrich Meinecke Institute of History of the Freie Universität Berlin in Germany, and is an editor of the Journal of Belarusian Studies. He defended his doctoral thesis in Political Science at the Otto Suhr Institute of Political Science of the Freie Universität Berlin, and is also an alumnus of the Belarusian State University and European Humanities University in Lithuania. In 1999-2011, he worked with Nasha Niva, a Belarusian independent weekly. Siarhei is an Expert Council member of the Minsk Dialogue Council on International Relations.

The World HandCOV'd: CSTO: in search of raisons d'être, Siarhei Bohdan - Minsk Dialogue Council on International Relations, June 29, 2020

Thomas E. Graham is a distinguished fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations. He is also currently a managing director at Kissinger Associates, Inc., where he focuses on Russian and Eurasian affairs. He is a cofounder of the Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies Program at Yale University and sits on its faculty steering committee. Graham was Special Assistant to the President and Senior Director for Russia on the National Security Council staff from 2004 to 2007, during which he oversaw a White House-Kremlin strategic dialogue. He was Director for Russian affairs on the staff from 2002-2004. Graham was a lecturer in global affairs and political science at Yale University from 2011 to 2019, teaching courses on US-Russian relations and Russian foreign policy, as well as cybersecurity and counterterrorism. He was a Foreign Service Officer for 14 years. His assignments included two tours of duty in the U.S. Embassy in Moscow in the late Soviet period and in the middle of the 1990's during which he served as head of the political internal unit and acting political counsellor. Between tours in Moscow, he worked on Russian and Soviet affairs on the Policy Planning staff at the Department of State and as a policy assistant in the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy.

Why We Still Need to Rethink Russia Policy: A Rebuttal, Thomas Graham, Rose E. Gottemoeller, Robert H. Legvold, Fiona Hill, Thomas R. Pickering and Jon M. Huntsman Jr. - Politico, October 25, 2020

Don't Put Belarus in the Middle, Yauheni Preiherman and Thomas Graham - Foreign Affairs, October 2, 2020

Amelie Stelzner is a Policy Advisor at Konrad Adenauer Stiftung, Germany. Amelie works in the international politics and security department as a consultant for the armed forces and society. She already gained work experience as a consultant at a strategy and communication consultancy, where she focused on security and defense policy issues. Before that, she studied European Studies at the University of Leipzig and Sciences Po Grenoble in France.

The World HandCOV'd: COVID-19: Implications for Germany's Security and Defense Policy, Amelie Stelzner, Daniela Braun - Minsk Dialogue Council on International Relations, October 19, 2020

Nadezhda Arbatova is a Head of the Department for European Political Studies at the Primakov National Research Institute of World Economy and International Relations (IMEMO) at the Russian Academy of Sciences. She also worked for the Swedish National Defense College (1998-1999), Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (2001). She is a member of Scientific Councils of the IMEMO RAS and the Institute of Europe RAS; a member of the Council at the Centre for Research and Development, Intercollege (Cyprus), director for scientific programs at the Committee "Russia in the United Europe" (2001-2007), a member of the Council on Foreign and Defense Policy (SVOP), representative of Russia in the Association of the French Institute of Higher National Defense Studies. Holds a PhD in Political Science.

Саммит надежды и неопределенности. Достигнут ли лидеры стран ЕС согласия по вопросу восстановления экономики после пандемии, Надежда Арбатова - Независимая газета, 16 июля 2020

The World HandCOV'd: EU - Strategic dilemmas facing EU in the post-corona world, Minsk Dialogue Council on International Relations, June 26, 2020

Zhang Xin is an Associate Professor at the School of Advanced International and Area Studies and a Deputy Director at the Centre for Russian Studies of the East China Normal University. Zhang Xin has taught undergraduate and graduate level courses on politics, economics and international affairs in the US (UCLA, Reed College), China (Fudan, ECNU) and Russia (HSE). He runs a column on Russian politics and international affairs in The Paper new media in Shanghai and provides commentaries on world politics in media outlets in and outside of China on a regular basis. He also provides policy consultation for both corporations and government agencies in and outside China.

Competition in Convergence: US-China Hegemonic Rivalry in Global Capitalism, Xin Zhang - Hegemony and World Order: Reimagining Power in Global Politics, 23 September 2020

Theorizing China-world integration: sociospatial reconfigurations and the modern silk roads,

Maximilan Mayer, Xin Zhang - Review of International Political Economy, 30 March 2020

Paul Révay is a member of the Board of Trustees of Friends of Europe in Brussels and lecturer on international relations at the Russian Presidential Academy of National Economy and Public Administration (RANEPA) in Moscow. He served the Trilateral Commission as its European Director from 1981 to 2017. Associated from 1996 to 2017 to the Lisbon-based Fundação Oriente organizing its Arrabida Meetings. In 1995-1996, he participated in European Union

TACIS projects on technical assistance to the Inter-State Economic Committee (MEK) of the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) in Minsk and in Moscow. In 1980-1996, he was Secretary General of the French Committee of the East-West Vienna International Council.

Zachary Paikin is a Senior Visiting Fellow at the Global Policy Institute (London). He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Middle East Studies and Political Science from McGill University, a Master of Global Affairs degree from the University of Toronto's Munk School, and a PhD in International Relations from the University of Kent, where he also works as an Assistant Lecturer in International Relations. He is also currently Senior Editor for the international affairs magazine Global Brief, a publication affiliated with the Toronto-based Institute for 21st Century Questions. Paikin's doctoral research has focused on Russia-West and Russia-China relations over the course of the post-Cold War period, and the impact these have had on the international order. He is a member of the Friedrich Ebert Stiftung's "Fresh Look on Eastern European Trends" group, which brings young policy experts and scholars to Vienna twice annually for workshops designed to publish reports on European peace and security, and additionally serves as a Visiting Fellow at the London-based Global Policy Institute. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Middle East Studies and Political Science from McGill University and a Master of Global Affairs degree from the University of Toronto's Munk School of Global Affairs and Public Policy.

EU-Russia relations and the crisis in Belarus: toward a more "geopolitical" Europe?, Zachary Paikin - The Fondation pour la recherche stratégique, November 10, 2020

The Sino-Russian Entente and EU Foreign Policy After the Pandemic, Zachary Paikin - the Global Policy Institute, July 23, 2020

Andrey Zagorskiy is a Head of Department of Arms Control and Conflict Resolution Studies at the Primakov National Research Institute of World Economy and International Relations (IMEMO), Russian Academy of Sciences. Ph.D. in History, Professor at the MGIMO Department of International Relations and Foreign Policy of Russia, RIAC member. Former Vice-Rector of MGIMO (Director of Research and External Relations), former Senior Vice-President and Project Director at the EastWest Institute in Prague, former Faculty Member at the Geneva Centre for Security Policy. Author of more than 350 scientific publications on European Security, Post-Soviet Studies, Arms Control, Arctic Studies and Russian foreign and Security policy.

Key Challenges in U.S.-Russian Relations: Are Collaborative Approaches Possible?, Andrey Zagorsky, Samuel Charap, James Dobbins, Rachel Ellehuus, Andrey Kortunov, Ivan Timofeev - Russian International Affairs Council, March 27, 2019

Mona Ali Khalil is a founder of MAK LAW INTERNATIONAL, Affiliate of the Harvard Law School Programme in International Law and Armed Conflict and a former UN Senior Legal Officer. She obtained a Bachelors of Arts in Government and a Masters in Middle East Studies from Harvard University in 1988 and a Masters in Foreign Service and a Juris Doctorate from Georgetown University in 1992. In addition to serving as a Senior Legal Officer in the UN Office of the Legal Counsel (UNOLC) in New York and the IAEA Office of Legal Affairs in Vienna, Ms. Khalil also served as Legal Adviser to the UN Mission to Investigate Allegations of the Use of Chemical Weapons in the Syrian Arab Republic and to the Joint OPCW-UN Mission for the Elimination of the Syrian Chemical Weapons Programme.

The Path to Ending Our Global Chaos is Through the UN, Mona Ali Khalil - Passblue, October 2020

Reforming the UN Security Council, Mona Ali Khalil - a report commissioned by UNA-UK and Together First April 2020

Wolfgang Richter is a Fellow at the German Institute for International and Security Affairs (Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik, SWP) in Berlin, Research Group on Security Politics;

His research area is the future of arms control in Europe as well as security cooperation and unresolved conflicts in the OSCE area. He was a Head of the MoD section of the Permanent Representation of the Federal Republic of Germany to the OSCE in Vienna; a Head of department, Federal Armed Forces Center for Verification Tasks (ZVBw); and a Head of the MoD section of the German delegation on global arms control to the Conference on Disarmament, Geneva, and UN, New York; German representative to three UN panels on small arms and light weapons (SALW) and the UN arms register as well as the UNDC working group on disarmament, demobilization and reintegration of combatants in internal conflicts.

Attack on the Open Skies Treaty, Wolfgang Richter - SWP Comment, June 2020

The End of the INF Treaty is Looming, Wolfgang Richter - SWP Comment, January 2019

Samuel Charap is a Senior Political Scientist at the RAND Corporation, based in RAND's Washington, DC office. His research interests include the political economy and foreign policies of Russia and the former Soviet states; European and Eurasian regional security; and US-Russia deterrence, strategic stability and arms control. From November 2012 until April 2017, Dr. Charap was the Senior Fellow for Russia and Eurasia at the International Institute for Strategic Studies. Prior to joining the IISS, he was a CFR International Affairs Fellow at the U.S. Department of State, where he served as Senior Advisor to the Undersecretary for Arms Control and International Security and on the Secretary's Policy Planning Staff, covering Russia and Eurasia. From 2009-2011, Dr. Charap was Director for Russia and Eurasia at the Center for American Progress, a Washington DCbased think tank. Dr. Charap's book on the Ukraine crisis, Everyone Loses: The Ukraine Crisis and the Ruinous Contest for Post-Soviet Eurasia (co-authored with Timothy J. Colton), was published in January 2017. He holds a doctorate in political science and a masters in Russian and East European studies from the University of Oxford, where he was a Marshall Scholar. He was a visiting scholar at the Carnegie Moscow Center and the International Center for Policy Studies (Kyiv), and a Fulbright Scholar at the Moscow State Institute of International Relations. Dr. Charap is a life member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Moscow's Calibrated Coercion in Ukraine and Russian Strategic Culture, Samuel Charap - George C. Marshall European Center for Security Studies, September 16, 2020

A New Approach to Conventional Arms Control in Europe. Addressing the Security Challenges of the 21st Century, Samuel Charap, Alice Lynch, John J. Drennan, Dara Massicot, Giacomo Persi Paoli - RAND Corporation, April 27, 2020

Benno Zogg is a Senior Researcher at the Center for Security Studies (CSS) at ETH Zurich, a university-based think tank linking academia and political consultancy. Furthermore, he is co-head of the Peace & Security Programme at “Foraus”, a Swiss think tank on foreign policy, and a member of the steering committee of the OSCE Network of Think Tanks and Academic Institutions. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Modern History from the University of Zurich, and a Master of Arts in Conflict, Security and Development from King’s College London. His research focuses on the international politics of Eurasia – notably Eastern Europe, Central Asia and Russia –, Swiss and European security, and the nexus of security, development and economics, including through the Belt and Road Initiative. At the CSS, he is also co-editor of the monthly CSS Analyses in Security Policy and other publications.

On the Belt, on the Road: China's Pivot to Eurasia, Benno Zogg - Strategic Trends, 2020

Russia and China: The Potential of their Partnership, Benno Zogg, Jeronim Perović- CSS Analyses in Security Policy, 2019

Andrey Vardamatsky - Doctor of Sociological Sciences (1992), Candidate of Philosophical Sciences (1983). Head of the private laboratory of axiometric research "NOVAK" (Minsk), which has its own sociological network. Head of the "Belarusian Analytical Workshop". Member of international organizations of sociologists WAPOR, ESOMAR, participant of their congresses in Davos, The Hague, Istanbul, Berlin, Paris. Author of over 60 scientific papers.

«Когда в твое окно стреляют, это видит весь дом», Андрей Вардомацкий - Коммерсантъ, 13 августа 2020

Aleh Makarau is the Director of the Belarusian Institute of Strategic Researches, established by the decree of the President of the Republic of Belarus 12.02.2019 No. 49. Graduated from the faculty of law of Grodno State University with a degree in jurisprudence. Doctor of Juridical Science, associate Professor. Defended his dissertation at the Institute of state and law of the Russian Academy of Sciences in «information law».

Previously headed the Information and analytical Department of the State Secretariat of the Security Council of the Republic of Belarus. Area of expertise: international law, information law, information security, theory of national security of the Republic of Belarus, analytics. Author of numerous scientific publications, including publications abroad, as well as monographs and textbooks. Member of the scientific expert group under the State Secretariat of the Security Council of the Republic of Belarus; the Interdepartmental Commission on information security under the State Secretariat of the Security Council of the Republic of Belarus; the Expert Advisory Council under the Council of the CSTO parliamentary Assembly; the United Nations Open-ended Working Group on Cyberspace (OEWG), approved by UN General Assembly resolution 73/27. Member of the expert Council of the Higher Attestation Commission of the Republic of Belarus on legal Sciences; Council for the defense of dissertations in Juridical Science to 07.02.01 at the National center for legislation and legal studies of the Republic of Belarus. One of the creators of the Concept of information security of the Republic of Belarus, The strategy of information security of the CIS member States; model laws of the CIS member States «On information, Informatization and information security», «On critical objects of information and communication infrastructure».

Elena Kuzmina is a Head of the Section for Belarus, Moldova and Ukraine at the Primakov National Research Institute of World Economy and International Relations (IMEMO), Russia. Holds a PhD in political science. Since November, 2012 till 2017 was the scientific secretary of the dissertation council "World economy" at Institute of economy of RAS. She is a Member of the committee on economic integration of the countries of SCO and CIS of Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Russian Federation. Member of the Euroasian association of international research. She is an expert of the Russian council for the international affairs, Fund of public diplomacy of A. M. Gorchakov the Russian Foreign Ministry.

Какие отрасли экономики могут выиграть от ситуации с COVID-19, Елена Кузьмина - Sputnik.by, 9 июля 2020

Andrey Rusakovich is an Associate Professor at the Belarusian State University and a Deputy Chairman of the Standing Committee on International Affairs and National Security at the Council of the Republic of the National Assembly. Dr. Rusakovich is a Chairman of Board at the Centre for Foreign Policy and Security Studies, Belarus. His research interests include Belarus's foreign policy, Belarusian-German relations, European security problems, international relations in the XX – early XXI centuries. He has authored more than 200 scientific works and teaching materials, including those published abroad. Andrey Rusakovich is often invited as a speaker at numerous scientific events, and takes part in the development and implementation of international technical assistance projects.

The World HandCOV'd: EAEU: new/old post-COVID-19 strategy, Andrey Rusakovich - Minsk Dialogue Council on International Relations, July 20, 2020

Sergey Markedonov is a Leading Researcher at the EuroAtlantic Security Center of the MGIMO Institute for International Studies. He is an expert on the Caucasus, as well as the Black Sea region, regional security, nationalism, interethnic/ethno-political conflicts and de facto states in the post-Soviet area. His publications include several books and reports, about 150 academic articles, and more than 1000 media pieces. From 2001 to 2010, he worked as head of the Interethnic Relations Group and deputy director at the Institute for Political and Military Analysis in Moscow. From May 2010 till October 2013 he was a visiting fellow in the CSIS Russia and Eurasia Program based in Washington, DC, USA. In 2013-2018 he was an Associate Professor at the Russian State University for the Humanities. In April-May 2015 he was a Visiting Fellow in the Russia and Central Asia Program at Fudan University, Shanghai, China. In January-February 2016 he was a Visiting Lecturer at the Center of Central Eurasian Studies at the University of Mumbai, India and in August-September – at the German Council on Foreign Relations (DGAP), Berlin.

The World HandCOV'd: Russia and Eurasian Dilemmas, Sergey Markedonov - Minsk Dialogue Council on International Relations, June 1, 2020

В ожидании России. Чью сторону заняла Москва в карабахском конфликте, Сергей Маркедонов - Московский Центр Карнеги, 11 ноября, 2020

Pavel Daneiko is a Chief Executive Officer of the IPM Business School (Belarus), co-founder of IPM Business School, Administrative Director of the Belarusian Economic Research and Outreach Center BEROCC, in consulting and research of Belarusian business for more than 23 years. Administrative Director of the BEROCC Economic Research Center. He is also an actual member of the Supervisory Board in the following companies: the holding «Silvano Fashion Group»; the Investment Company "UNITER", the Center for Social and Economic Research (CASE-Ukraine); the Belarusian Institute for Strategic Studies (BISS).

Трансформация сектора государственных коммерческих предприятий в Беларуси, Павел Данейко, Александр Чубрик, Катерина Борнукова, Дмитрий Крук, Кирилл Гайдук - Финансы, учет, аудит, 22 июня 2020

Igor Okunev - Professorial Research Fellow & Director at the Center for Spatial Analysis in International Relations, Institute for International Studies, MGIMO University (Russia). Holds a Ph. D. in Political Science. He is Co-Chair of the IPSA Research Committee on Geopolitics (RC-41), member of Russian Geographical Society and Association of Russian Human Geographers. He is the executive editor of an online version of journal Comparative Politics Russia (WoS). Visiting professor at St.Edward's University (2017) and West Virginia University (2018, 2019). In 2014 he was awarded as the best young journalist in international relations by the Russian International Affairs Council, and in 2017 as the best international studies scholar by the Russian International Studies Association.

Геополитические коды России — внешнеполитическая стратегия и национальные приоритеты, Игорь Окунев - Российский Совет по международным делам, 27 февраля 2020

Andrey Sushentsov is a Head of the Institute of International Studies at the Moscow State Institute of International Relations and is the president of the Eurasian Strategies MGIMO Consulting. He is also a Program Director of the Valdai Discussion Club. His research concentrates on American foreign policy in international conflicts in the South Caucasus, Ukraine, and the Middle East. In his studies, he examines the spheres of conflicting interests of Russia and the United States in Europe, the Middle East and the post-Soviet space. He is also an editor of the annual forecast "International Threats". He was a Visiting Professor and Research Fellow at Georgetown University, Johns Hopkins University, Guido Carli Free University of International Studies, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Harvard University and Middlebury Institute for International Studies in Monterey. He is a member of the Council on Foreign and Defense Policy and a member of the Working Group on the Future of Russian-American Relations.

Утопия многообразного мира: как продолжается история, Андрей Сушенцов, Олег Барабанов , Тимофей Бордачёв , Ярослав Лисоволик , Фёдор Лукьянов, Иван Тимофеев - «Валдай», 13 октября 2020

Политический кризис в Белоруссии: международное измерение, Андрей Сушенцов - Валдай», 7 сентября 2020

Eugene Rumer is a Director and Senior Fellow, Russia and Eurasia Program at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, USA. Rumer's research focuses on political, economic, and security trends in Russia and former Soviet states as well as on Russia's foreign policy, especially its relations with the United States, China, and the Middle East. Prior to joining Carnegie, Rumer was the national intelligence officer for Russia and Eurasia in the U.S. National Intelligence Council from 2010 to 2014.

From 2000 to 2010 Rumer was senior fellow, research director, and interim director at the Institute for National Strategic Studies, a U.S. Department of Defense think tank supporting the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He has also served on the National Security Council staff and at the State Department. During his career, Rumer has held research appointments at the RAND Corporation (including three years as RAND's representative in Moscow), the International Institute for Strategic Studies, and the Washington Institute for Near East Policy. He has also taught at Georgetown University and George Washington University.

Will a New U.S. Administration Mean Change on Ukraine and Belarus?, Eugene Rumer - CARNEGIE.RU, October 29, 2020

Turmoil in Belarus: Looking Beyond the Horizon, Eugene Rumer - CARNEGIE.RU, August 17, 2020

Elena Korosteleva is Professor of International Politics and Jean Monnet Chair of European Politics, at the School of Politics and International Relations, University of Kent. She is Director of the Global Europe Centre at Kent, and Principal Investigator of the Global Challenges Research Fund COMPASS project (2017-21), a British Government priority initiative, focusing on resilience and capacity-building in wider Eurasia. Elena is also Visiting Professor at the LSE IDEAS; and International Advisory Board member of GLOBSEC. Elena's research focuses on the concepts of governance/governmentality; resilience; local ownership; self-governance and capacity-building/critical infrastructures.

Russia between east and west, and the future of Eurasian order, Elena Korosteleva, Zachary Paikin -

International Politics, July 14, 2020

The Eastern Partnership 3.0: Change or Continuity?, Elena Korosteleva, Irina Petrova, Ihor Merheim-Eyre - University of Kent, April 24, 2020

Kateryna Bornukova is an Academic Director of the BEROE Economic Research Center, Belarus. She holds a PhD in Economics from the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid and a MA in Economics from Kyiv School of Economics, EERC. Kateryna held a visiting professor position at Kyiv School of Economics in 2011. She has worked at the Belarusian Research and Outreach Center (BEROC) since August 2010. Her research interests include Macroeconomics,

Labor supply, Business Cycles, Female Labor Force Participation

Трансформация сектора государственных коммерческих предприятий в Беларуси, Катерина Борнукова, Павел Данейко, Александр Чубрик, Дмитрий Крук, Кирилл Гайдук - Финансы, учет, аудит, 22 июня 2020

Доверие в экономике: что это, как работает и для чего нужно?, Катерина Борнукова, Надежда Годес, Евгения Щерба - Банковский вестник, 10 апреля 2020

Andris Spruds is the director of the Latvian Institute of International Affairs. He also holds the position of professor at Riga Stradins University. Andris Spruds has an MA in Central European History from the CEU in Budapest, Hungary and in International Relations from University of Latvia. He has also obtained a PhD in Political Science from Jagiellonian University in Krakow, Poland. Andris Spruds has been a visiting scholar at Oxford, Uppsala, Columbia and Johns Hopkins University, as well as the Norwegian Institute of International Affairs and Japan's Institute of Energy Economics. His research interests focus on energy security and policy in the Baltic Sea region, the domestic and foreign policy of post-Soviet countries, and transatlantic relations.

Central Asia and connectivity: a view from Latvia, Andris Spruds - Latvian Institute of International Affairs, October 22, 2020

Vygaudas Ušackas is a member of the Board of the Avia Solutions Group; Former Ambassador of the European Union to the Russian Federation from September 2013 to October 2017. From 2010 till 2013, he was the European Union Special Representative and Head of the European Union Delegation in Afghanistan and was Lithuanian Foreign Minister from 2008 to 2010. In his distinguished career in the Foreign Service, he served as Counselor to the Lithuanian Mission to both the EU and NATO from 1992 to 1996; Political Director of the Lithuanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs from 1996 to 1999; Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Lithuania and Chief Negotiator for Lithuania's Accession to the European Union from 1999 to 2001; Lithuanian Ambassador to the United States of America and United Mexican States from 2001 to 2006; Ambassador of Lithuania to the Court of St. James from 2006 – 2008.

Anna Maria Dyner is political scientist and specialist in Eastern affairs. She works as an analyst at the Polish Institute of International Affairs (PISM) and the Eastern Europe Programme Coordinator. Her interests include domestic and foreign policy of Belarus and Russian Federation. She also deals with the hard security issues in the post-Soviet region including military reform and the modernisation of Russia's military-industrial complex. Anna Maria Dyner is an author of various PISM analyzes and papers about domestic situations in Belarus and Russia and their foreign and security policy. She has also written on Belarusian, Russian and Ukrainian affairs for Rzeczpospolita, Nowa Europa Wschodnia, Polska Zbrojna, EUobserver, New Eastern Europe.

Belarus Launches Nuclear Power Plant, Anna Maria Dyner - PISM Spotlight, November 10, 2020

On the Training Areas of the Union State of Belarus and Russia, Anna Maria Dyner - PISM Bulletin, October 5, 2020

Hanna Shelest is the Security Studies Program Director at the Ukrainian Prism Foreign Policy Council, Editor-in-Chief of UA: Ukraine Analytica and Head of the Board of the NGO “Promotion of Intercultural Cooperation”. Prior to this, she had served as a Senior Researcher at the National Institute for Strategic Studies under the President of Ukraine, Odessa Branch. In 2014 Dr. Shelest served as a Visiting Research Fellow at the NATO Defense College in Rome. Dr. Shelest is a Rotary Peace Fellow 2010, Black Sea Young Reformer 2011, John Smith Fellow 2012, Marshall Memorial Fellow 2016, TUBITAK Visiting Research Fellow 2018, Think Visegrad Fellow 2019. She was recognized as “40 under 40 Ukrainian Emerging Leader 2013” by the US-Ukraine Foundation.

Угода щодо Карабаху: хто від неї виграв, хто програв та що буде далі, Ганна Шелест - Рада зовнішньої політики «Українська призма», 17 листопада 2020

Black Sea Policy of Ukraine, Hanna Shelest - UA: Ukraine Analytica, April 4, 2020

Victor Shadurski is Dean of the Faculty of International Relations of the Belarusian State University (since 2008), Professor (since 2002). His research interests cover the foreign policy of the Republic of Belarus, bilateral relations with neighboring countries, collaboration with other states. His research also focuses on such country-specific topics as the domestic and foreign policy of France, regional and international cooperation of the Baltic Sea States, as well as post-Soviet countries. He is the author of about 300 scientific papers on international relations published in Belarus and abroad. He is the editor-in-chief of the Journal of the Belarusian State University. International Relations (published in English), Chairman of the Editorial Board of the Journal of International Law and International Relations, member of editorial boards of scientific periodicals in Russia, Poland, the Czech Republic and Estonia.

Policy of the Republic of Belarus in the Field of Security: Impact of Internal and External Factors, Victor Sahdursky - international Relations and Foreign Policy, December 2016

Montu Saxena is Chairperson of the Cambridge Central Asia Forum, Director of Cambridge Kazakhstan Centre and Honorary Secretary of the Committee for Central and Inner Asia. He trained as an anthropologist, historian and a physicist. His research interests are in the areas of religion and identity, knowledge systems, social and political development and institutional history in Central Asia and the Middle East. He also holds a Fellow Commonership at Jesus College, University of Cambridge. He received his PhD in Trinity College, Cambridge, did Post-Doctoral training at the University of Groningen, in the Netherlands and University College London and a Research Fellowship at Girton College, Cambridge.

Asiatic Roots and Rootedness of the Eurasian project, Montu Saxena - Palgrave Macmillan, July 2015

Anar Valiyev is a Dean and an Associate Professor at ADA University. He received his Bachelor's and Master's degree in History from Baku State University. From 2001 to 2003 he studied public policy at School of Public and Environmental Affairs at Indiana University in Bloomington, where he received his second master. In 2007 he defended his dissertation at School of Urban and Public Affairs from University of Louisville, KY receiving a doctorate degree in Urban and Public Affairs. From 2007 to 2008 he was working as assistant professor at the Faculty of Social Studies of Masaryk University in Brno, Czech Republic. In 2008 he joined ADA University and currently he is Dean of School of Public and International Affairs. His areas of expertise are public policy of post-Soviet republics; democracy and governance; urban development and planning. Dr. Valiyev is the author of numerous peer-reviewed articles and his research works appeared in journals such as Problems of Post Communism; Communist and Post-Communist Studies; Eurasian Geography and Economics.

A battle for transportation routes in the Russian neighborhood: Is there a place for small states?, Anar Valiyev, Shahana Bilalova - International Politics, May 2, 2020

Cholpon Turdalieva is Professor at the American University of Central Asia. She has extensively worked on the History of Kyrgyzstan. She teaches courses such as Cultural Concepts and Social Networks; Great Game: Competition for Central Asia. Along with her teaching, starting from 2015, she has started doctoral studies at Humboldt University in Berlin. She has participated in the Central Asian Research and Training Initiative (CARTI) project, and was a Fulbright scholar at the University of Washington in Seattle and a visiting scholar at Columbia University in New York.

Farrukh Salimov is the Head of the Department of Diplomacy and Foreign Policy of the Tajik National University, member of the PF 'Eurasian Association of International Studies' (EAMI) (Kazakhstan) (2017) and a member of the Union of Journalists of Tajikistan (2018). Farrukh's research focuses on such areas as the geopolitical and geo-economic situation in Central Asia, Central Asian stability, problems of ensuring regional security, politics and interests (political, economic and geopolitical) of the Russian Federation and the People's Republic of China in Central Asia. Monograph "Regional Stability in the Context of the Central Asian Strategy of Russia and China".

Analysis of Tajikistan's Participation and Policies in International Organizations, Farrukh Salimov - Central Asian Bureau for Analytical Reporting, July 22, 2020

Akram Umarov is Senior Research Fellow at the University of World Economy and Diplomacy. Previously he worked as a Senior Research Fellow at the Institute for Strategic and Regional Studies under the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan and Academy of Public Administration under the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan. He received a Master's Degree in International Relations at the University of World Economy and Diplomacy. He has great interest in security studies, conflict management, public diplomacy, Afghanistan, Central Asian studies, CIS countries, public administration, global security, peace and development.

Central Asia: construction of the new regional security complex?, Akram Umarov - The Journal of Cross-Regional Dialogues/La Revue de dialogues inter-régionaux, January 1, 2020

Ulugbeck Hasanov is a Chair of the International Relations Department in the University of World Economy and Diplomacy, Tashkent. His professional and scholarly experience is devoted for studies of regional security issues, competition and rivalry between neighboring nations over water, food, energy and other security issues. Former Adviser to the President / Press Secretary at the Office of the President of Tajikistan. He has a PhD in Political Science from Moscow Institute of World Economics and International Relations.

Stefano Stefanini is a former-Permanent Representative of Italy to NATO and an Executive Board member of the European Leadership Network. Ambassador Stefano Stefanini was Diplomatic Advisor to the President of Italy, Giorgio Napolitano; Deputy Chief of Mission at the Italian Embassy in Washington. He had previously served in New York, United Nations; Moscow; Washington; Perth, Western Australia. He has substantial expertise in Transatlantic affairs, international security, defence capabilities and industry, as well as in Western and European relations with Russia and in EU affairs.

Philip Breedlove Former NATO Supreme Allied Commander Europe. He held a variety of demanding command and staff positions: Commander of US European Command; Commander, US Air Forces Europe and Air Forces Africa; Vice Chief of Staff of the Air Force; and Assistant Chief of Staff for Air Operations, Plans and Requirements. He currently serves on the Georgia Tech Advisory Board, serves as a Distinguished Professor at the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs at

Georgia Tech, as CEO of Emerald Coast Strategic Solutions, and is on the Board of Directors of the Atlantic Council. Gen. Breedlove earned his Bachelor of Civil Engineering from The Georgia Institute of Technology and a Masters of Science in Aerospace Technology from Arizona State University. He completed a Masters of International Security Affairs from the National War College, a Fellowship in International Security Affairs, Seminar XXI from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and completed Leadership at the Peak at the Center for Creative Leadership Colorado Springs.

Technology, Strategy, and the Future of Policy, Philip Breedlove - Orbis, September 2020

Oksana Antonenko is a Director for Global Risk Analysis at Control Risks Group where she focuses on analysing political, regularity and security risks for senior decision-makers in private and public sectors. She is also a Global Fellow at the Kennan Institute. She has spent over 20 years analysing Russian politics and foreign policy at the International Institute for Strategic Studies, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, London School of Economics, and Harvard Kennedy School of Government. Oksana has degrees from Harvard University and Moscow State University.

A Chain of Crises in Russia's "Near Abroad" Catches Moscow by Surprise, Oksana Antonenko - Wilson Center, October 9, 2020

The Belarus Election and its Aftermath | An Expert Analysis, Oksana Antonenko - Wilson Center, August 12, 2020